

Call for Proposals and Submissions... VISUALEYEZ Canada's Annual Performance Art Festival

The eleventh annual Visualeyeyz, festival of performance art taking place from 15 - 21 September 2010 in the downtown core of Edmonton, Alberta, focusing on the curatorial theme of Food.

Visualeyeyz happens over a period of six days and it is desired that all invited artists are able to attend for the entire length of the festival. Artists experience the work of other artists; engage in discussion groups, panels and other activities that enhance the work of individual artists and the performance art community within Canada and beyond. Please visit <http://visualeyeyz2009.latitude53.org/> for a sample of the past festival.

Curator and Founder of Visualeyeyz, Todd Janes states, "I am interested in the intersections of how artists are engaging in discourses surrounding food; or using food as a key element in their practices and performances."

Proposals should include: a CV; artist statement; a detailed description of the work you wish to present, or explore; and support material that can include slides, video, print or digital documentation of your work, catalogues, and press.

The deadline for submission is Friday, 21 May 2010.

If you would like your materials returned to you, please also include sufficient postage or courier materials. Artists shall be contacted by mid-June 2010 regarding the status of their proposals. Proposals can be sent by mail to:

Todd Janes, Executive Director
Latitude 53 Contemporary Visual Culture
10248 106 Street
Edmonton, Alberta Canada T5J 1H5

Alternatively, proposals can be emailed to todd.janes@latitude53.org. Please be courteous of image size and materials that you are sending. Please place Visualeyeyz 2010 submission in the subject line

Visualeyeyz is supported, in part by Canadian Heritage, Canada Council for the Arts, The City of Edmonton, Alberta Foundation for the Arts, The Edmonton Downtown Business Association and Latitude 53
